CENTRAL ARGENTINE LAND COMPANY.

Five years ago the Central Argentine Land Company shares, one pound sterling paid up, were selling on the London Stock Exchange, at three shillings and sixpence a share. To-day they are quoted in London at £3 2s. 6d., being a premium of £2 2s. 6d. per share of £1; that is to say over 200 per cent premium!!

In directing attention to this remarkable advance in this most unspeculative stock, we afford our readers another proof of the solid progressiveness of the country, and of the influence of peace, stable government, and good traffic railway returns on the credit of the Plate abroad. Every mail from Europe brings us the most favourable advices and the most complimentary remarks on General Roca's administration; and, although in many other Argentine stocks there has been a splendid advance in values, we know of none that speak more eloquently for our improved credit abroad than these Central Argentine Land Company shares; a stock never speculated in, sparsely held and pretty much on a par with the Rio Negro land certificates which were issued in 1878, at 10,000 m/c per league, and to-day are selling in the market at 32,000 m/c.

There are a few who can assume the responsibility of having predicted in 1878, the national development and prosperity we now enjoy, and we cannot forget those London colleagues who always had a good word for the country and its securities. Notably the Money Market Review, Herepath's Journal, The River Plate Mail, The Financier and some few others. As a rule, all the River Plate men in London who believed in the country and held on to their stocks have made independent fortunes, and, indeed, we know some who never visited the River Plate, but who invested in Hard Dollars and Southern Railway Shares, and who to-day have more than doubled their capital.

When Mr Brassey visited the Plate, these Central Argentine Land Shares were all but unsaleable in London, and although his report on the fortunes of the company was not to say unfavourable, still things were at so low an ebb at that time in Santa Fe, that the affairs of this land company looked inextricably confused, due to the latitude of credit allowed to colonists, who, in disgust, had thrown up everything, and left the colonies hopelessly in debt and never to return.

The fortunes of the Central Argentine colonies have of late years undergone wondrous change and vast improvement, and Mr Agar, of Glasgow, who has just returned from a trip to those colonies, assures us, that nothing astonished him more than the rapid growth of these colonies and the vast areas of land in Santa Fe, now brought under cultivation. We can see, however, in the rise in these shares, the growing prosperity of the colonies which they represent. It is Santa Fe wheat and Carcarañá maize that have driven this stock up, and precisely, as one can read in the quotation of a railway stock the traffic it is doing and its earnings, so in this Land Company's stock agriculture and its products are the real bases of the shares and their 200 per cent premium.

The great rise in these Central Land Companys shares has not escaped the notice of some of our London colleagues, and with pleasure we publish the following remarks of the Money Market Review, in one of the latest numbers received by the mail;—

"In the case of this, as of not a few other Companies of a like class, land asserts its claim to be regarded as not only one of the safest, but one of the most remunerative of investments. From month to month the Shares of the Central Argentine Land Company seem to be engaging an increased degree of attention, while, all the time, the fact that there is not the slightest excitement about the market—the movement being, indeed, of an extremely quiet kind—renders it practically certain that such gain in value as is established will be permanent. A considerable number of transactions have taken place in them this week at 3 and 3½. As they are £1 Shares, fully paid, this price represents a clear premium of 200 per cent. Those of our readers who have followed what we have said from time to time with regard to the rapid increase in the vale of land in that wonderfully-improving country, the Argentine Republic, will not be surprised at this movement.

"It deserves to be mentioned, also, that in some of the agricultural "Colonies" in the Argentine Province of Santa Fe, situated near the estates of the Central Argentine Land Company, land at this moment commands prices considerably above those as yet realised by that concern."

THE BIRTH AND DEATH OF WORLDS.

For those of our readers who can turn their attention from cows, sheep, estancia lands, stocks, Cedulas and the like, the following extract of Mr. Proctor's great astronomical lecture in London, last month, will be a refreshing relief. The lecture in question has caused much notice in London, advancing as it does some very new theories that surpass much of our predisposed philosophy. We very sincerely doubt, however, with all our shining lights and boasted scientific victories, if we have advanced one iota ahead of the Egyptian who marked the Zodiac over the Isis Temple, or the Pharaoh whose memorable lines inscribed on one of the Pyramids has been a challenge to the human intellect for over 3,000 years. No mortal yet has lifted that veil, and Mr. Proctor is groping his way the same as the Copts. Say, will they 3,000 years hence have lifted the coffin-lid, or solved any of Nature's greatest secrets? We doubt it; nevertheless, the lecture to which we refer is always most interesting reading, and may amuse and instruct, and even edify some few mortals who believe that the moon is still to the good and not totally played out:—

"Mr. Richard A. Proctor gave the first of his six lectures on astronomy at St. James's-hall on Wednesday night, the special topic being "The Birth and Death of Worlds." The audience filled every part of the large room, the stalls, in particular, showing hardly a vacancy. Mr. Proctor said that among the greatest lessons which science had learned and taught were these, that occupied space was practically infinite, occupied time practically eternal, the reign of law without beginning and without end knowable by us. Men of old recognized a limited region, which they supposed to be the whole world, arched over by the heavens, in which certain bodies moved for the benefit of the earth alone. Now we know that the earth is the merest point in the solar system, the solar system itself being lost amid infinities of star-strewn space. They recognized a few thousand years as sufficient for the past history of the universe; now those few thousands have lengthend into thousands of thousands, even of millions. They had seen law in the growth of plant and animal; now we find law in the development of worlds and systems of worlds, nay, even in systems of systems. The life-time of a world is thus seen to be but of brief duration compared with processes of evolution in which science has been forced to believe, because the evidence respecting them has been too clear to be resisted. Considering the history of a world, we see first the embryonic or vaporous condition in which, owing to the intensity of heat, the elements are, for the most part, in the gaseous form. Our own sun is an orb in this first stage of an orb's life. His intense lustre, his fiery heat, the stupendous activity pervading his whole frame, afford evidence that this is so. In the second stage a large part of an orb's substance is in the solid or liquid form, but still intensely hot, and in this stage every particle of water, afterwards to form the seas, would be in the form of steam, clouds forming (layer within layer of them) all round that vaporous envelope. Of this second stage the planets Jupiter and Saturn afford evidence. They are cloud-enwrapped, of relatively small density, full of fiery energy, and all that is known of them accords with the belief that they are still in the state of planetary youth. Our earth and her sister planet Venus tell us of the mid-life of worlds, when the surface has cooled sufficiently to be the abode of living creatures. Mars is a planet in old age. There still remains water on his surface, though much less, relatively as well as absolutely, than on the earth. Air also is there, clouds form, rains fall, there are ocean currents and wind currents, snowy poles, cloud-capped—if not snow-capped—mountains and so much of the material activity which we associate with the requirements of life as to suggest that life is probably there. But there is also decided evidence of old age. Lastly in the moon we have a world which has reached the last stage of all, the stage of planetary death, airless and waterless, an arid waste, yet telling us in her volcanic craters of a long past fiery youth, in the dark tracts called the lunar seas, though certainly there is no water there, of a time when she had seas and oceans as the earth has now. Such are the stages of a world's life as illustrated for us within the solar system itself."

TRADERS' PETITION.

The following is the petition of the merchants of Rosario to Congress setting forth the evils the country suffers from through the want of a uniform note currency all over the Republic. The loss and danger of the existing system is manifest to the merest tyro in financial economy, and it is to be hoped that Congress will lose no time in finally settling this vital question.

Rosario, May 12th.

To the Honorable Congress of the Republic

Availing ourselves of the right conferred by Art. 14 of the National Constitution, we respectfully approach Your Honorable Houses, and say:—

For many years past, the whole Republic, and chiefly the provinces and the trade of the Interior have had to suffer the consequences of the want of a National coin currency; monetary anarchy has fastened on the country devouring the products of toil, trammeling alike the operations of the banks, the founding of new ones with foreign capital, and the diffusion of the benefits of those which have been opened in the face of the dangers inherent to such a state of things.

The country had hoped that the Act of November 5th, 1881 would have put a stop to all these difficulties, which retard our progress, but recent events have convinced us that it is necessary to appeal to the intelligence of Congress to complete its work.

The Act of 1881 established a 'monetary system..' Now a monetary system is the uniformity which it embodies and develops. The Act established Bi-metallism, to conciliate all interests, and the Unity arrived at by this Act is represented by the legal equality in value of the National gold and silver dollar. But, in practice this equality in value is left to the mercy of the open market and the necessities or convenience of each one. This unity may be destroyed by allowing each state, mixed, or private bank to issue notes of any type it may choose. If each bank emit at its good will and pleasure, uniformity is at once destroyed, nor can the legal equilibrium of value between two coins be maintained, as the market, from sundry causes, changes every moment; and these alterations affect the note currency, producing another source of anarchy that injures trade and must prevent the opening of new banks in the country.

If the Nation has the right to legislate on Money and to coin, its right to also determine the type of the note issue is indisputable, and a consequence of the right to coin and stamp money. In this way the unity of the coinage is manifest in the unity of the notes. But, if every bank has the right to issue in whatever type of gold or silver dollar it pleases, it is self-evident that the relative values established by the Act are purely illusory and impossible to maintain.

In those countries where Bimetallism prevails only the State Banks issue in the legal type, and the others in whatever type the Government may order. Already there is a difference in the value of the National gold and silver coins, and this will become greater and more injurious according as the banks make their issues to suit themselves.

We, therefore, earnestly pray Congress to hear our petition and amend the Law in the part to which we refer:—

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

May, 18th

It is difficult to understand the relations which exist between the Chilians and the Bolivians. That the former are not animated with the intense hatred they possess for the Peruvians when the Coya nation is concerned appears to be certain. In fact, during the whole period of the war, although the first pretext was afforded by the question with Bolivia, no particular animosity was awakened in the heart of the Chileno. It was only when Peru foolishly embroiled herself in what would have been an easily arranged question between Chile and Bolivia, that the tiger blood of the race of Caupolican showed itself; and the implacable hatred for the enervated but haughty descendants of the Incas has led the vanquishers into the most vandalic excesses.

Bolivia retired early from the contest before she had time to rouse the ire of the Southern Republic, which has never ceased to conciliate her mediterranean neighbors, while on the other hand there is a large party in Bolivia who believe it to be the proper policy to form a friendly alliance with Chile. It seems clear that it is only the pride of the military class that has been the obstacle up to the present.

It is many months ago when writing on this same subject I suggested the probability of Chile offering the port of Arica and the town of Tacna to the Bolivians in exchange for the coast territory taken from the latter, and as a step to a treaty of peace and friendship, in which special commercial advantages would be secured for the former. This has lately been proposed in the Chilian Congress; and it is consequently rather strange to hear that Chile has decided on imposing heavy duties on Bolivian exports from the port of Arica. This step may have been taken to force the Bolivians into making peace; but apparently it has had an opposite tendency, that is, to strengthen the military party and popularize commercial communication with the Argentine Republic. The "Catorce de Setiembre," of Cochabamba has the following significant paragraphs:

"It is an established fact that merchandise coming directly from Europe, costs the same placed in Salta (A. R.) and Tacna. Now, the freight from Salta to Oruro is 45 dollars the mule load, of 12 arrobas, and from Tacna it varies from 30 to 35. We see then the cost by either way of placing goods in Oruro is almost equal, if we take into consideration the insignificant duties paid in Tupiza as compared with the exorbitant ones that they make us pay at the Custom House at Arica.

"From this simple exposition we deduct the conclusion, to say nothing of the last Chilian Decree, that many descriptions of merchandise can be introduced into the country at equal cost, and many more with a positive advantage, by the Argentine route. The valuation in the Custom House at Tupiza is less by three quarters than in Arica, while the duties are 5, 10 and 15 per cent lower. The packages of goods are not opened at Tupiza, and a very small proportion of them are opened in Rosario, say one in a hundred, and there is no danger of robbery by the Argentine route, while in Tacna the rapacity of the Chilenos is such that sometimes a tenth of the goods never reach their destination."

There is no doubt that Chile is seriously disturbed by the tenacity of the military party in Bolivia, for every day that passes is so much lost time for her and a positive gain for the Argentine Republic. The passive resistance of the Bolivians was probably not counted on, and the Chilian Railway to La Paz, and the consequent monopolization of the Bolivian commerce, is as far off as ever.

All the principal merchants of Rosario have signed a petition to Congress about the new monetary difficulty. I cannot make out from the wording of this petition what are the actual opinions of our commercial community. They complain that the uniformity of type does not exist, but offer no alternative. Bi-metallism is established by law in the country, and yet the difference in value of the gold dollar and the silver dollar is absurdly too great. Even the Government refuses to receive its revenue in its own coinage. It strikes me that bi-metallism can only advantageously exist when there is uniformity in the value of the two metals, and this is difficult if not impossible, owing to vacillations in the value of silver. As I said in my last, the only thing for Congress to do, is to prohibit the issue of notes based on silver. Make the latter a legal tender to a limited extent, say 5 o/o for sums under one hundred dollars, and 1 o/o for sums over that amount. Prohibiting the emission of paper of a less denomination that 5 dollars, the public would become accustomed to use the silver, and retail prices would accommodate themselves to the value of the metal, while all more serious operations would be in gold. It is useless to try and make silver anything more than a circulating medium for small commercial necessities, like the copper cent, which the community consents to give and take at double its intrinsic value for the sake of its convenience as small change.

I had the pleasure of making a visit on board the beautiful steam yacht Meteor, the property of Mr. Langworthy. It is the first time we have seen one of those magnificent specimens of sea architecture, invented by the boundless wealth of England, and now becoming so numerous, that the wealthy Englishman finds his yacht as necessary as his carriage. The Sunbeam, Sir Thomas Bsassey's steam yacht, did not come up to Rosario. Though somewhat larger than the Meteor, the latter is more comfortable and roomy from the fact she has a deck house, running fore and aft, nearly all the length of the vessel in which is the hatchway lobby, the dining room, the upper engine room, pantry, kitchen and stewardess's room. The consequence is that below deck is roomy enough to efford lots of space for large berths, rooms rather, and a spacious parlour, lined with book-shelves, a piano, and full of rich and luxurious furniture. To make this deck-house perfectly secure in stormy weather besides being strongly built of teak wood and iron, a strong cloth of three or four thicknesses is thrown over loosely, and fastened to the bulwarks, so that a wave might pass over the low-lying craft and not disturb the inmates of the dining room. The engines and machinery are of the most perfect that wealth and science have invented, either high or low pressure, as may be desired. The Meteor with her coal in draws 12 feet, and as her deck is not more than six feet above the water, we can understand her perfect sea-worthiness. The sea might as well try and wreck an Albatross. The machine for condensing water for the engines is a perfect triumph of art. The combined power of money and science is making sea roaming a luxury.

Four of our most atrocious criminals broke from the jail the other night, having filed their shackles. Two others were also ready to escape but were prevented in time. The next day two of the four were caught, concealed under some straw, in the outskirts of the town. The other two have not been yet discovered. As they are both desperato ruffians it is feared they will get off, and we shall soon hear of some outrage perpetrated by them. One of these men was condemned to be shot, but the "Sociedad de Beneficencia' procured a commutation of the sentence. Now, who will be most to blame for the future crimes of this man, now that he is at liberty?

The gunvessel Rifleman has left for Asuncion, and the Meteor follows to-day.

OUR RIOJA LETTER.

La Rioja, May 14, 1883.

Dear, Mr. Editor,

It is now five weeks since I returned to this outlandish province, and took charge of my English and French pupils, trying my best to make downright Oxford or Cambridge swells of the British lot, and Parisiens pur sang of the Gallic element. As I stated in my last year's correspondence, there is not a single individual of either nationality to be found, for either love or money, in this magnificent capital, so I am afraid my efforts will remain unappreciated by any one but myself. However, I am perfectly satisfied with my own doings, and so are the boys; therefore, I say, "so be it" to the rest of the world's opinion in general.

It is true, the Inspector of National Colleges, Mr. Torres, will arrive here shortly, and may differ with me about the good opinion I have of myself. Let us devoutly hope not! for what would become of me? I should never be able to live happy and contented in any other city of our globe, after having tasted the delights of a two years' residence in this enchanted oasis.

On the 24th of last month the elections of electors took place, and, as it happened, your correspondent had elected the same day for his birthday. "How many years?" I hear somebody inquire. Now, young man, you had better mind your own business, and if a young lady should happen to be asking, all I vouchsafe to answer is—"I am past twenty-five. Upon my word, Miss, I am!" At dinner (and such a dinner! Philip couldn't beat any of its dishes, either for originality of compound or richness of flavour! Oh! ye gods!) I drank to absent friends. They were all absent! Did any single one of them think of this solitary and exiled schoolmaster? If I were a Yankee my answer would be—"You bet, not!" I then drank "many happy returns of the day." There may be many yet, there may be few, some happy ones, and others full of sorrow, but I am pretty sure to have reached the zenith, unless there happens to be some nigger blood in my veins, white folks, as a rule, not reaching a round hundred years.

As regards the elections, they came off exactly as your correspondent predicted. Beautifully compact, and without any hitch whatever.

On the 24th of this month of May, i.e., one day before Independence Day, the electors will meet in solemn conclave, and "Dn. Baltazar Jaramillo," brother-in-law of the present Governor, will be elected, amidst the most enthusiastic shouts of everybody who has the true interests of this noble province at heart, and by such fraternal and harmonious accord as history seldom witnessed—"Prima Magistrado de la Provincia de la Rioja durante el periodo legal, y conforme á la soberána voluntad de un pueblo libre y amante de la Constitucion!"

Beautiful! Is it not? Now, if anybody doubts the coming into effect of this, your correspondent's prophecy, he had better come here and be prepared to stand drinks all round, for he is sure to lose.

Already there is a subscription on foot, and an order sent to Rosario for some fireworks, (writer, generous fellow as he is, recklessly threw away one peso "chirola," to aid the fiery exchequer), and what with the arrival of the distinguished visitors from the camp districts, the naming of the new Governor and the "Fiesta Patria," you may guess what a lively place otherwise musty old Rioja will be from the 24th till the end of the month. Our only musical band has also received new uniforms, and though not quite up to the mark, at least not able to compete with a Crystal Palace Musical Festival Orquestra (? orchestra) nor sufficiently remarkable for its performances to see its director gold-medalled by some foreign Monarch, yet it will help to enliven and cheer the general run of citizens, during the daytime, and make the "High Life" hop during the hours when Nature goes to roost.

We had a bit of an earthquake here the other morning about daybreak, but beyond slightly moving the heavy damask curtains of my drawing-room and shaking the marble fountain which adorns the fifth portico of my princely mansion, no great damage was done.

Of small items, there are but few to record. Our only paper, La Rioja Moderna, stands on its last legs—the old tale, no support, few subscribers! Few advertisements! No subvention! How can a paper prosper?

From the mining districts very cold weather is reported.

Here we have had no frost, and consequently the oranges are sour as yet. (Strange fact! Want to be frozen to death in order to turn sweet)—and grapes being nearly finished, we have to chew old nuts, dry raisins and leathery figs for our "dessert." The new wines are beginning to come to town in small lots for the present. I shall send you a sample in July or August, to let you taste what real Rioja wine is. None of the stuff sold in Buenos Aires as such. The question is, "Will it keep?" A trial will teach us.

There is no common yellow soap in the market just now, so our clothes are washed with 'Jabon de bacalao,' which has already created on various occasions a vehement desire in this young man's breast to have been born a Greenlander.

And now, come forth, my serious pen!

By way of explanation, let it be chronicled here that the writer keeps three sets of writing implements, or, to draw it mild, three penholders of different sizes and colours. One is of old English oak ("deutcha dicha") would do as well, for after all, if one stands for six, the other certainly is worth half-a-dozen!) and of a diminutive broomstick shape, invariably used on caustic subjects. The next one is sharp-pointed and of a bilious tinge, appropriate for mild satire ("amargo" doesn't answer in these latitudes); and the third one. is a rose-coloured goose-quill, for all kinds of good-humoured chit-chat.

Mr. Editor,

I have lately seen in your estimable journal a controversy betweeu two gentlemen, equally respected by all who knew them. The first doubts whether it is necessary, or even in good taste, to send alms to the starving Irish children at home, and the other pitches into him for such truly uncalled-for interference with a generous public's purse-strings.

Well, Sir, has it sometimes occurred to you "Printing-House-square fellows," and others of your ilk, living distinct quarters of that great metropoly, 'yclept Buenos Aires, that there are Argentine children, and grown-up people too, exposed to starvation if help, and speedy help, does not come forward, be it from private or official sources, before winter sets in.

We all love our adopted country, and few there are, no matter whether descendants from Saxon or Latin parents who would not far more willingly assist natives of that soil, where their home is built, than help European paupers, who ought to look for help—(and will too)—to their own wealthy countrymen.

No doubt, you have seen already reports of the dire disaster which has been threatening this province for some years—the dreadful phantom of "Famine"—on account of a continuous drought, and which has reached now its point of culmination.

The following extract of our local paper shown how bad it is:—

Honor al pueblo Riojano.

El aliento lúgubre causado por la miseria, déjase oir de todos los puntos de la Provincia.

No son los Departamentos del Sud tan solo los que abandonan su hogar, huyendo despavoridos a las vecinas provincias, sino que el hambre tiende sus pesadas alas sobre los del Oeste, i su sombra nefasta, con las mortales amenazas que trae, se dibuja ya en el suelo de la capital.

El cielo niega su clemencia i la tierra disecada e infecunda, arroja lójos de sí a todo viviente que quiera conservar su existencia.

El cuadro de la miseria es horrible, i el crímen déjase entrever en medio de él como fantasma aterrador.

En los Llanos, la emigracion a Córdoba i San Juan se hace en mucha parte a pié por falta de cabalgaduras.

Cual si se tratase de las antiguas peregrinaciones, van envueltos en estas violentas emigraciones rudos sufrimientos.

Niños, ancianos, enfermos, desvalidos huyen espantados de la caricias del suelo idolatrado, dejándole para siempre quizá.

Already the Nacion has opened a campaign in Buenos Aires, but expects more from Government assistance than private help. The Capital of Rosario has obtained a result. (I hear 4,000$F more or less) which sum invested in maize, beans, rice and other stores is partly on the road.

By telegrams from San Nicolas (as you will see by the papers I send you) charity is moving there likewise.

"Gringos" as a rule, are not esteemed overmuch in the provinces.

Would not the result of a purely foreign fund for the benefit of the "famishing Riojanos and Cartamar qnenos" assist to change this antipathy into kind and brotherly feelings?

I have written to the editors of the German and Swiss papers on the same subject, and hope that something, no matter how trifling, will be the result.

Yours truly,

G. H. A.

DEAD AND YET ALIVE.

THE EXTRAORDINARY CASE OF MISS FANCHER OF BROOKLYN.

Any undue excitement throws her into a trance—a thunder clap, the firing of a cannon, the unexpected intrusion of a stranger into her room, worry over an absent member of the household; and the trances are repeated with rapidity until her mind is again in repose. Oftentimes, when worried over the absence of some loved one, she has said, "I must search for her," and has gone into the trance. On emerging therefrom, if asked whether her search was successful, she answers promptly in the affirmative, "Yes, I saw her in —— street; she will soon be home," and very soon in walks the wanderer. Sometimes she is not successful in several attempts, but she ceases not until she is satisfied. At other times her vision wanders. It has gone to a summer seat on the Hudson, where were several of her friends, and she has afterward been able to describe minutely the houses, the barns, the meadows and fences, the water in front of and the woodland in the rear of the dwelling, and with a fidelity that is instantly recognised by those familiar with the region. When scientific men and physicians have produced some extraordinary difficult tests she has been obliged to wait until the trance condition came upon her; for it does not seem always to be voluntary. But if it is a simple question of reading an ordinary sealed letter, or announcing the arrival of a person at the street door, she easily solves the difficulty without recourse to the trance. As she rests continually on her right side, her face is averted from the entrance to the room. Yet she often times knows who enters, although unable to turn her head, and is quick to discern any peculiarity or change of dress. If a gentleman friend puts on a white necktie in early spring, after having worn a black one, she is quite likely to cry out, her face averted, "Good afternoon, Mr ——. Where did you get your necktie?" It has been deemed necessary to darken her room, and the shades are tightly drawn; yet the darkness does not affect her vision. She is ever busy in the darkness, reading or at needle or waxwork, or casting up the accounts of the family, for she keeps a record of every expenditure.

She writes letters with extraordinary rapidity, in a neat, legible hand, although it is certain she cannot see with normal sight, and, mindful of the interest that her condition may excite among scientific men, she has kept a complete record of her feelings, her sensations when in trance and out of it, her religious beliefs as strengthened or shaken by the revelations of her peculiar state, and of everything that she thinks will interest her friends. This record she guards with care. She is willing that it may be given to the public after her death, but not till then.

Persons who have entered the room have found her apparently doing nothing, and have asked her why she was idle.

"Oh, I am reading such and such a book."

"Well, where is it?"

"Under the bedclothes here," and she produces it and talks of its contents.

While Miss Fancher's eyes were absolutely sightless, the eyelids being closed and the eyeballs fixed as though in death, she was able with facility and without seeming effort, to make marvels of fancy work. For her gentlemen friends she embroidered suspenders and worked slippers and patchpockets, and for companions of her girlhood she made needlework of all kinds, pincushions and wax flowers. Every stitch was in proper place, every shade of coloured thread and worsted was correctly drawn. Her handiwork was as near perfection as could be. Some of it was sent to fairs, where, its maker being unknown, it was pronounced superior to all others of its kind exhibited. Sometimes she worked from paper patterns purchased at a fancy store, sometimes from other fancy work, but oftener she originated her designs. It was impossible to deceive her in the quality or shade of the materials with which she worked, her rare power of so-called second sight enabling her to detect any flaw with greater accuracy than did the natural vision of her friends.

Once, when a peculiarly delicate effect in a piece of worsted work called for an especial shade, it was necessary to ask a gentleman friend to procure it for her in New York City. Miss Fancher evinced considerable anxiety lest an error should be made inthe selection, and gave more minute directions concerning its purchase than was her practice. In due time her friend returned with the parcel.

"You've brought the wrong shade, I am sorry to say," was the greeting she gave him before he had so much as spoken to her, and while the worsted was yet in his pocket.

"Its just according to sample, Miss Mollie. The salesman was very particular to compare them."

"Yes, he might have thought so, but it's a shade too light, and it will not do."

The worsted was produced and the pattern from which the work was to be made was put by its side. Those in the room could not detect a difference. The sick girl insisted that it was too light.

"Take it back, please, when you are passing, and the expert will convince you that I am right," she said.

Back went the gentleman with the worsted.

"You gave me the wrong shade," said he to the clerk.

That young man examined and denied.

"Call your expert," said the embassador; and the expert came.

"Its a lighter shade than the sample," was the expert's decision, and he quickly produced the proper one.

"This is just right," was Miss Fancher's greeting as the second parcel was handed to her unopened.

EDITOR'S TABLE

It rained in the most emphatic manner on Friday night and the thunder and lightning played "fortissimo" accompaniment. Instead of washing the streets clean, however, the rain left a nice pasty mud in the streets yesterday morning—that kind of mud that floors portly, middle-aged gentlemen with even greater rapidity than an orange peel. We hope the Rt. Honourable the Lord Mayor and his new Corporators will at once turn their attention to a rigorous enforcement of the bye-law that obliges householders to keep the footway in front of their premises clean. Otherwise, some of the newly-fledged Aldermen and Town Councillors may come down on their own broad backs some wet morning, and be invalided for life. It would answer the public purpose still better if the Lord Mayor himself were to get a harmless "soss," but he is such a good Chief Magistrate we cannot, even in the public interest, wish him one.

Telegrams were received yesterday from the South announcing that the National troops had overtaken the murderers of Mr. McClymont and his party and killed or wounded them all, except two. The pursuing troops were a squadron of the 7th Horse, under Major Alba.

Mr. Corry of San Pedro has collected in that district the generous subscription of $2,225 m/c for the Irish Children's Relief Fund. We will publish the list of names in our next issue.

The "unpleasantness" about the extension of the Tucuman Railway to Salta is not over yet. Congress has named a select Committee to investigate the affair.

The new "globos" for the Buenos Aires Lottery drawings have arrived, and will make their 'debut' in the Monster Drawing of Saturday next, when there will be no fewer than four prizes of 20,000 pats., and others of larger amounts than usual. The proportion of blanks to prizes will be only ten to 1, instead of 12 to 1 as in the ordinary drawings, so there is a better chance than usual of a smile, or at least a wink, from Dame Fortune.

The Quartette Society announce a most interesting concert to-morrow evening next, in their salon at the Teatro Nacional. The programme includes a string quartette by a celebrated modern master, Mr. Saint-Saens, a highly original work of great interest, op. 39; two duos for violin and piano, a Romance by Max Kruch, and the celebrated Hungarian Dances of Krahms arranged by Joachim; as these will be played by Signor Milani, who is a pupil of Joachim, we expect a masterly performance. The concert ends with Beethoven's Quintett op. 41. With this rich prospect in view, no doubt lovers of classical music will muster in large numbers. The performance begins at 8 sharp.

At the British Hospital, Dr. George Mackern has been elected as visiting physician, to replace Dr. L. Peacan who retires by rotation. Dr. Colbourne continues as visiting Surgeou. We must allude 'en passant' to the impassable condition of the Calle Bolivar at the entrance to the Hospital. Those who wish to enter that way have to get down at the corner, then skirt along a narrow and tortuous path along the wall, encountering difficulties to which the "mauvais pas" at the "Mer de Glace" is as nothing, because at any rate that celebrated pass is not slippery and the authorities have provided chains along the rocks. As the Defensa entrance is usually kept carefully locked up, we see but little chance of anyone being able to get into the Hospital, though, no doubt, many leave it with smiling faces under the present able management.

We feel glad to report that shortly a new waltz will be edited by Messrs F P Rodriguez & Co., dedicated to the celebrated and well known artist Mr Cl. del Ponte, and composed by the German master Mr Conrad Herzfeld. We had the pleasure of hearing this gentleman sing a few days ago in the concert at the American Church, and feel happy in congratulating him on his success. No doubt, this waltz will be written in the same pleasant way as the other compositions of the author. We shall refor to it later on.

A neat little book with extracts from the "Reglamento" of Mr Juan W. Beard's Colegio Ingles, 317 Calle Reconquista, was given round yesterday. The college appears to be managed on an excellent system.

The recent political rumours from Montevideo about President Santos's resignation "et hoc bosh omne" turn out, as usual, to have no foundation. Advices from the sister city say that Santos never was jollier, and his Ministers also look in the best health and spirits.

Boccaccio is repeated to-night at the National Theatre. Signor Cendalli has written a special symphony for the occasion, and we hear it is a beautiful composition.

A general internal reform in the Police service of the city is spoken of as likely. The hours of duty and other matters are about to be altered in a sense less harrassing to the men. We must say that the police appear to be improving greatly, and there is less brutality on the part of the black sheep of the force than formerly.

The Corpus Christi procession on Thursday next will leave the Cathedral at 12½ p.m., and go once round Plaza Victoria.

Another Lambertini will appear to-night at the Politeama with her clever brothers and sisters. She is a little dot named Dora, only two years old! Is it not carrying the thing a little too far to put such a tender infant on the stage?

The time for paying the famous 'Renovacion de Marcas' tax expires on the 31st, so estancieros had better pay at once, as the fine is as monstrous as the tax itself—50 per cent.

To-day is the 103rd anniversary of Rivadavia's birth.

The death of Mr. Wisowski, of the National Engineers' Department, is announced.

This is an awfully queer country. A "botica" at the South end of town was closed the other day by the Health Board, for hygienic reasons. If there be any place where health is supposed to be found, it ought to be in an apothecary's shop.

A morning paper says that the iron railing of the top gallery of a leading theatre wants looking to, or there will be a 'descensus averni' of the whole of the "gods" into the pit some night. This is even worse than in the Rosario Opera House, where the heaviest things that bold pates in the pit have to fear are gingham umbrellas, fans and lorgnettes.

We had the pleasure of receiving yesterday the thesis written by Dr. Santiago Klappenbach on taking out his degree as Doctor of Law. It is entitled "Prescripcion, sus Fundamentos y Requisitos,' and the careful study and range of research it displays augur well for the future career of this young barrister.

Telegrams from Montevideo report a large English steamer aground on the South of the English Bank. Several small steamers were sent to her assistance from Montevideo.

As will be seen by a notice in another column the remains of our ill-fated countrymen that were murdered in the last Indian Raid will be interred to-day in the British Cemetery at 2 p.m. No doubt the sad assemblage will be a very large one. The cortege starts from 906 Calle Belgrano, at 1.45 p.m.

There is a literary seance at the Academia Literaria del Plata, in Salvador College, and Messrs Boer, Soto, Cullen and O'Farrell will take part in it.

There's an awful lot of amusement going on in town now. Half a dozen theatres, concerts, panoramas, etc. The latest is a grand High Life amateur dramatic performance to come off in the Opera House.

With this issue we distribute a selection of Press Notices on Mr Latham's performances in Europe and Africa. We feel sure they will be read with great interest, and gratification by all who have not hitherto had an opportunity of seeing them.

A medical assistant at one of the city hospitals made a rather unpleasant mistake (for the patient) the other day. In the hospital the patients are styled in numbers instead of by their names. The doctor wrote in the order-book—"Put one blister on Number 12." Instead of this, the medical assistant put twelve blisters on Number I, and the state of the unfortunate patient can be better imagined than described.

Our colleague L'Union Francaise has an article on "Fagging and Flogging" in English public schools, a system that the "dignity of man" &c. would not admit of in republics. Of course not. But the fagging and flogging have produced a race of statesmen, sailors and soldiers that can bear comparison with any other in the world, so it is more than probable that we shall stick to the two Fs. and leave the 'dignity' question to other races, the dignity of whose rising generations is something too utterly utter for the average Briton to comprehend without laughter.

THE "NOVILLO."

May 18th.

Dear Standard,

This time you have not hit the nail on the head in your as usual very ably-written article, "The Novillo," published in your issue of 17th inst., insinuating that over-taxation has brought the saladero to such a very sensible decrease in this Republic. The principal cause of the retrograde march of this once flourishing industry is to be sought in a very different quarter, as has been shown already by several other papers, which published well-studied articles on this topic, and which have been admitted as being to the point by everyone connected with saladero enterprise and trade.

It certainly is not remission of taxation that will restore this industry to new life and movement, or reduce the enormous, very slowly diminishing stock of jerked beef in Bahia, Pernambuco and Habana. The malady lies deeper, and is of a mortal kind. Jerked beef, the chief produce of the saladero, is on the way to be completely eliminated as an ordinary article of food for the Brazilian and Cuban slaves; and there is nothing which will bring this article back to its ancient glory, because slavery itself is disappearing and there is no lack of better and cheaper substitutes for the never-improved "carne tasajo."

The increase of slaughtering in the Banda Oriental is no phenomenal occurrence; it is only due to the fact that besides the ordinary saladeros, there are numerous other establishments destined, as you know, to different manufactures of extract of meat, pressed and preserved meat, etc.

The Oriental Republic is considerably ahead of us in meat factories of every kind, and in the increase of slaughtering we may note already the excellent, beneficial results which these new industries offer to our sister Republic. The export of fresh meat will give still more activity to cattle-raising and cattle trade.

But on this side of the River Plate we are still far behind; and you certainly will do a greater benefit to this country by unveiling the truth and inviting the people here to follow the good example of other countries and give effective aid and protection to any new enterprise relative to the export of meat, be it preserved in tins or by ice, in powder, extract, or otherwise. What we want here is not one but ten establishments like that which Drabble will shortly have in working order in Campana.

Any industry that will augment the consumption of our yearly increase of cattle, and raise its value, must be welcome to the country and to the Government.

The saladero is not in this condition.

Yours truly,

An Old Subscriber.

ON 'CHANGE.

May 19th, 1883

Patacon	25.00
Cedulas A	100½
Cedulas E	85⅝
National Bank Shares	106
Argentine Gas Shares	88

The Bolsa reflects the weather; everything is depressed, and both Cedulas and National Bank Shares shewed symptoms of weakness. Close on 300,000 Cedulas were sold during official hours; the market opened firm and a leading broker made large purchases, but the stock fell subsequently and closed weak. Twenty six thousand changed hands for cash at 85¾ and 85⅝. Over 200,000 were sold for the end of the month; rates opened at 85⅝, rose to 85⅞, and closed at 85⅝. Operations for the end of June embraced 45,000 at 85¾ and 8 ⅝.

National Bank Shares are neglected and rates dropped this morning; as a leading broker remarked, the "horse looks tired". The stock has been successfully maintained at the current rates, but all efforts to throw activity into the speculation have been in vain. The public keeps aloof. Two hundred shares were marked sold for cash at 106, and 300 for the end of June at 107¼.

Fifty shares of the Argentine Gas Co. were sold to-day at 88 o/o. This is the cheapest stock in the Bolsa.

On Monday the petition for paying in full the new shares of the National Bank will be presented to Congress. The parties who present same offer to pay for 18,000 shares. The market attaches much interest to the issue of this petition.

An engineer is at present in the Province of Santa Fé making all the surveys of the proposed Santa Fé Railway Concession to the great Murrietta property. Two routes are under study.

The Board of the Western Railway has done something at last. Three hundred and fifty waggons have been sent up the line to remove part of the grain produce lying at the stations. One thousand waggons are needed for the purpose.

The announcement that a Lamport & Holt steamer had run ashore on the Banda Oriental coast is erroneous; the agency contradict the statement.

All gold coins in the market are at a premium with the exception of ounces. Gold is merely in demand for passenger purposes.

The great news of the day was the change in the rates of exchange of the Provincial Bank; the new rates are:—
On London 49d
On France 5.14
On Antwerp 5.15
On Genoa 5.14
On Hamburg Rm.4.15

The Bank has been drawing very heavily all along at 49½, and the change in the rate was daily expected. There is very little exchange in the market.

Messrs. G. Gowland & Co., the popular auctioneers, will sell off to-morrow the fine property situated at the corner of Montevideo and Cuyo streets, and better known in the market as "El Pino". The upset price is $1,000,000 m/c.

The Humberto I° brings £20,000 for the Italian Bank.

There is a less buoyant feeling in the money market; the drop in exchange, the reported partial failure of the Santa Fecino loan and the approach of conversion by the Provincial Bank have somewhat changed the aspect of affairs. Discounts continue easy and the banks are liberal. but little money comes on the Bolsa and stocks are at a stand-still. Meantime, very much capital is going into estancias and many are seizing the opportunity of buying cattle which are cheap at present to stock outside camps. The market looks on the proposed Consolidation bill with feelings of distrust. Congress warmly supports the idea, but it turns out that the amount proposed in the original bill is far from sufficient to fund the debt into a 5 o/o stock. It is thus rumoured that the new bill proposes $160,000,000 at 5 o/o. An amount which staggers the market. The former committee of Congress has been studying the matter carefully and it is supposed that the bill will be presented to Congress before the end of the month; the members are nearly all in favour of same and it only remains to be seen if the money can be raised in the London market. The present season does not certainly appear very auspicious for the launching of such a gigantic scheme.

The sales at the ring during official hours were:—
Cedulas—
For cash A 4,650 at 100½
For cash E 26,000 at 85¾-⅝
For May 31st E 220,000 at 85¾-⅞-¾
For June 30th E 45,000 at 85¾-⅝
Sales, 295,650
National Bank Shares—
For cash 200 at 106
For June 30th 300 at 107¼
Sales, 500
Argentine Gas Shares—

Messrs Bullrich & Co. will sell off by auction on Tuesday, 94 lots of land in the 'ejido' of Bahia Blanca. Every copper dropped in Bahia Blanca will give a tenfold return.

The fine property, occupied by Messrs. Milligan & Williamson, has been sold for $50,000.

Mr. A. King was welcomed on 'Change today on his return from the camp; he goes up the Uruguay.

Messrs. Schwarz, of the Casa Amarilla, are now perforating twenty Abyssinian wells in the Interior of the country for account of the Government. The tubed well of Lujan has given splendid results. The best means of helping the poor people of Rioja and Catamarca is by perforating one hundred of these wells.

Mr. P. J. Carey was welcomed on 'Change to-day; he leaves on Monday for the old country where he intends selling all his properties to buy an estancia in this Province.

Messrs. Hoyo & Co. have sold two leagues of land in the partido of Tres Arroyos at the rate of $90,000 m/c per league.

Our colleague El Nacional announces the following sales of real estate:—
" 11 leagues of land in Cordoba, at 95,000 m/c per league. Buyer, Mr. Goddard.
" 19 leagues in the same province at 75,000 m/c per league. Buyer, J. M. Muñiz, who resold same, for 100,000 m/c per league, to R. Lavelle and M. Ugarte.
" 5 leagues do do, at 100,000 m/c. A. D. Iriarte, buyer.
" 15 do do, at 120,000 m/c. Lavalle and Ugarte buyers.

The principal feature of the wheat market is the considerable fall in the price of the grain since the beginning of the harvest, which is a very abundant one. At the beginning of the harvest from $110-115 m/c per fanega were paid for the Costa wheat, which is declared by all the very best grain in the Republic. The fanega of this class of wheat never falls under nine arrobas and five pounds. The Costa qualities have not been exported, as the millers of this Province and city have all throughout seized upon same for consumption. These fine qualities are now selling at $95 m/c per fanega. One may judge of the depreciation of wheat by the fact that in former years $200, 300 and even 400 m/c were paid for these first-rate qualities per fanega.

The European markets cannot form an adequate opinion of the wheat of this province, since none of it has been exported, and the samples sent forward are inferior kinds. Santa Fe wheat cannot stand any comparison with the good qualities of Buenos Aires. Unfortunately the very great expenses of loading in this port, the very faulty means of transport and the numerous drawbacks put in the way of 'chacareros' in this province, prevent the export of the grain. Santa Fe herein has a great advantage; furthermore, freights are cheaper up rivers than here.

A cargo of good wheat from this province, if sent to Liverpool, Antwerp, or any French port would excite general attention. The fine quality of same, its yield of flour and size and weight of grain are unsurpassed, and could compete with the very best kinds sent to Europe from the United States. The maize of this province is well known in France, and all last year commanded prices one and twopence higher than any other class in Europe or America; the same may yet take place with our fine qualities of wheat, which, according to 'connoisseurs' in this market can find no rival in the world.

Wheat from the South of this Province is drawing the attention of the market. Splendid lots have arrived from Pardo, from Mr. Lix Klett's fine "chacra", sold at $105 m/c per fanega; from Azul, sold in this market at $108 m/c, in the beginning of the season. Last, not least, a lot of wheat has arrived from the Russian colony Hinojo, in Olavarria; the quality and size of the grain are exceptional and shew the splendid properties of the soil in the South. This lot was sold yesterday at $95 per fanega; the buyers were millers of this city.

Maize has experienced a rise of $7 m/c during the week. This rise has been occasioned by the heavy rains in the camp and the impossibility of sending in grain from the West. Rain, want of sheds and of waggons, have produced the rise, which will be only temporary. As soon as transit is re-established we may look forward to large arrivals and a collateral fall in prices. Mr. Lix Klett sold several lots at $59 and 60 m/c, and other "consignatarios" obtained $60 and $62 m/c for a special lot. Telegrams from Europe annonce that maize is quoted in Bordeaux at 15 to 15.50 fs. per 100 kilos, and in Liverpool at 6/ per 100 lbs. These rates limit export prices in this market to $55 or $60 m/c maximum per fanega put on board. Freights, furthermore, are higher than this time last year, both by steamer and sailing vessel.

The samples of colza from Messrs. Lix Klett, Colonel Romero, and Sabatté's "chacras" have given satisfaction; and advices from Europe state that the quality of this oleaginous cabbage is excellent and that "chacareros" should plant same on a large scale. Colza is destined to rank as high as linseed in our list of exports. What is wanting to advance the agricultural interests of this Province is an Agricultural Bank or a more liberal policy on the part of the Provincial Bank. "Chacareros" should be liberally protected and exonerated from heavy amortizations. The Provincial Government might protect the industry and watch interests which are destined to give far greater wealth to this thriving Province than tallow, wool or hides.

Business during afterhours reflected a weaker market for Shares and Cedulas; sellers of the former at 106 for the end of the month, and of the latter at 85⅝.

The sales at afterhours were:—

The starting of a private joint-stock estancia by three or four English merchants and capitalists is another sign of the great change affairs are taking in this country. But a few years ago Mr. Woodgate published a most excellent pamphlet, and labored hard to get joint-stock estancias started in the R. Plate but he was before his time, and the fine piece of land which has now been purchased for this new estancia 26 square leagues, might have been bought in the Woodgate pamphlet era for about $10,000 m/c per league, or even less; to-day the price paid for the same land is $160,000 m/c per league. Yet even at these prices the land must be considered immensely below its really productive and intrinsic value. Any league of land stocked with sheep and cattle must be estimated as worth from $250,000 to 400,000 m/c since the yield of the cattle on the land will represent double the average rate of interest on money invested in real estate. Within the last fortnight we have had notice of nearly a dozen of new estancias started on the outside camps. This new estancia beyond Gainza, and the great estancia on the Colorado now being formed by Mr. Luro, may be regarded as the principal enterprises in this line, but there are scores of small estancias being started outside of which the public know nothing, and small estancias of say 500 cows and 1,000 sheep springing up on all sides are the truest signs of the great progress going on. Cheap lands and cheap cattle with good men to mind them form the true basis of estanciero success, and all those who command these elements may rest assured of the very best returns in a few years for, as we said before, there is no staple in the world to beat the "novillo".

A native colleague publishes a telegram from London, under date 17th inst., announcing that the Santa Fecino $5,000,000 loan had failed in the London market. The receipt of this telegram was known in the market yesterday, but as no confirmation has arrived the news must be put in quarantine. About a week ago it was reported in Rosario and published here that the loan had been placed at 92 o/o; although the news looked somewhat premature at the time, all further doubts were rumoved when subsequent advices announced the success of same. Everything favored the enterprise, but it is thought by many that the turn in the London money market may have changed the aspect of affairs, and that the loan has been temporarily taken up by a Syndicate. These are mere surmises and no opinion can be formed until further telegrams are received.

Telegrams from Bordeaux announce that ⅔ of the sheepskins offered at the public sales were taken up the first day. The prices at the auction are on a parity with those of last February. There is much activity in this market, and every sheepskin in the Once and South Plazas is immediately bought by the French buyers.

Congress is head and ears in the Tucuman Railway imbroglio. A special committee of five members has been named to investigate the irregularities and extra expenses occasioned by the Saladillo tunnel and viaduct. It would have been far better to appoint a special committee of engineers in this delicate matter. Congress, at all events, is determined to sift the matter, and whatever blame is attached to the managing engineer of the extension, it is entirely eclipsed by the responsibility that must necessarily fall on the shoulders of the Department of National Engineers, who should have detected all those errors long before this. The finale of the whole affair is already foreseen; the railway loan will not suffice to complete the extensions and new credits must be voted to carry the lines of the Tucuman and Andine Railway to their termini.

The full particulars of Messrs. Altgelt and Mendez's proposed railway from Bahia Blanca to San Luis have been published. The new line is to have a length of 640 kilometres broad gauge with a guarantee of 6 o/o on a kilometric cost of $19,600. The line to cost $12,500,000. Messrs. Altgelt & Mendez know the wants of Bahia Blanca and have seen at a glance that without this line, which will connect the place with an immense back country, the future of the rising port must bear a relative ratio with the advance of the present limited surroundings. Bahia Blanca is bound to advance in seven-leagued boots when the Great Southern Railway reaches its terminus, but the new line will give further impetus to the rapid strides of the town, and nobody can doubt the great progress of a port which can fall back on the trade of the South of the Province of B. Aires and of the central parts of the Republic. Viewed in this light the line is as much a necessity to Bahia Blanca as to the intermediate camps, lying waste at present, owing to the want of easy means of communication.

Two hundred pipes of beef tallow from the Sampayo saladero in Gualeguay are reported sold at 17½ rls per @ put here.

The splendid Iturriaga property, situated in the most central part of the city, in Calle San Martin Nos. 103-109, in front of the Bolsa, was sold yesterday for $1,980,000 m/c. If this property had been put up in auction last year it would have fetched much more; the sale has taken place when the removal of the Bolsa is a settled fact. The buyer of this fine property is Mr. I. Bedruello. The auctioneers were Messrs. P. Elizalde & Co.

The Provincial Bank discounted yesterday five millions currency.

The Nacion publishes the following important commercial telegrams:—
"Bordeaux, May 18th, 1883.
"Sheepskins—

300 animales vacunos Durham, importados y nacidos en el pais, entre las que se encuentran las celebres vacas Niñitas premiadas con los primeros premios en las Exposiciones de la Sociedad Rural Argentina y Continental, como tambien la madre y demas familia de dichos animales que no han estado en exhibition.

Los toros Waterloo Grand Duke y Endimion son los que estan actualmente al servicio de la cabaña; el primero importado de Inglaterra, por el Sr Downce, y el segundo remitido por el Sr Elia, por el cual se nos pago 25,000 ps., siendo uno de los animales que mas han llamado la atencion de los criadores mientras estuvo en nuestra casa y que con sobrada razon escribio el Sr Elia, "que mandaba animales en los cuales tenia la seguridad de perder dinero" probandolo el hecho de no haber repetido sus remesas.

200 ovejas y carneros Lincoln, siendo una parte de ellos importados expresamente para esta cabaña, de la del Sr Clark en Inglaterra como tambien los padres que las sirven. Estos animales seria demas recomendarlos, pues ningun criador de esta raza en el pais, ha alcanzado los precios obtenidos por esta cabaña.

Este establecimiento solo dista una legua de San Fernando, lo cual facilita el embarque de animales para los rios o el Estado Oriental casi sin gastos y la proximidad a la ciudad facilita el trasporte de los animales por cuales quiera de los Ferro Carriles.

Siendo todas las vacas de esta cabaña mansas, pueden ser destinadas para leche o para raza.

"PLOUGHS"

"PLOUGHS" "PLOUGHS"

Messrs M. Forrester & Co.

Beg to announce to the Public that they have lately introduced into this country with great success the

Celebrated Two and Three Furrow Ploughs
OF
ENGLAND

These WROUGHT IRON PLOUGHS fitted with breasts and shares of steel, have been extensively used in the Provinces and are destined to supersede the light and flimsy wood implements made by the Americans.

By means of a simple hand lever the onward movement of the animals raises the plough out of work at the ends, thus saving the driver the usual hard lifting connected with ploughing.

The two Furrow Plough is drawn by a pair of bullocks, thus doing double the work of a single plough and still with only one man.

These "Multiple" Ploughs are now almost universally employed in Australia and South Africa, and in recommending these implements Messrs. Forrester & Co feel confident that they are well adapted to the requirements of the Plate.

In order to procure these Ploughs orders should be sent in at once, or disappointment may be incurred.

BORWICK'S
BAKING POWDER

Used by thousands for making wholesome Bread, Cakes, Flour-Puddings, &c. Sold in 1d. & 2d. packets and 6d. & 1s. boxes, by all Storekeepers and Grocers.

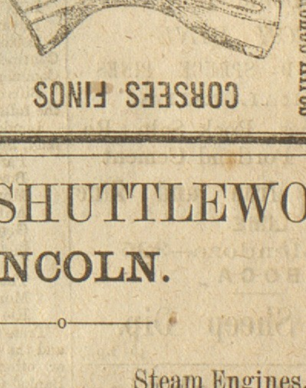

Invaluable at the Diggings and in the Bush, also on board Ship, as small loaves of the best Bread or Scones can be made in a few minutes without the aid of Yeast.

Private Ward, during the Zulu war, writes:—"I should just like you to see the real farmhouse bread that I bake! The oven is one dug in the ground, and is just large enough to hold our daily quantum of two loaves. We use flour, water, salt, and BORWICK'S BAKING POWDER. My bread often surprises me, it is so light, and white as snow. Some of our men will insist that I have been 'in the trade,' and nothing I can say will convince them to the contrary."

Four Gold Medals awarded. Manufactory:—G. BORWICK & SONS, Chiswell Street, London.
